Opening Acclamation

Presider Blessed be God: Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

People And blessed be God's kingdom now, and forever. Amen

The Collect for Purity

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Gloria: Hymn

Gloria

Angels we have heard on high

Angels we have heard on high,
Singing sweetly through the night,
And the mountains in reply
Echoing their brave delight.
Glo----r-ia, In excelsis Deo
Glo----r-ia, In excelsis Deo

The Collect of the Day

Presider The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Let us pray.

O God, you have caused this holy night to shine with the brightness of the true Light: Grant that we, who have known the mystery of that Light on earth, may also enjoy him perfectly in heaven; where with you and the Holy Spirit he lives and reigns, one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

The First Lesson

A reading from the prophet Isaiah.

The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light;
those who lived in a land of deep darkness--on them light has shined.
You have multiplied the nation, you have increased its joy;
they rejoice before you as with joy at the harvest, as people exult when dividing plunder.
For the yoke of their burden, and the bar across their shoulders, the rod of their oppressor, you have broken as on the day of Midian.
For all the boots of the tramping warriors and all the garments rolled in blood shall be burned as fuel for the fire.
For a child has been born for us, a son given to us;
authority rests upon his shoulders; and he is named
Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God,
Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.
His authority shall grow continually, and there shall be endless peace for the throne of David and his kingdom. He will establish and uphold it with justice and with righteousness from this time onward and forevermore.
The zeal of the Lord of hosts will do this.

Reader The word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

The Second Lesson

A reading from Paul's letter to Titus.

For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation to all, training us to renounce impiety and worldly passions, and in the present age to live lives that are self-controlled, upright, and godly, while we wait for the blessed hope and the manifestation of the glory of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ. He it is who gave himself for us that he might redeem us from all iniquity and purify for himself a people of his own who are zealous for good deeds.

Reader The word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Please stand for the sequence anthem & Gospel reading

Sequence Hymn Hark the Herald (v.1)

Mendelssohn

Hark the herald angels sing glory to the newborn King!
Peace on Earth and mercy mild, God and sinners reconciled
Joyful all ye nations rise, join the triumph of the skies;
With angelic host proclaim Christ is born in Bethlehem!
Hark the herald angels sing glory to the newborn King!

The Gospel

Gospeller        The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People            Glory to you Lord Christ.

In those days a decree went out from Emperor Augustus that all the world should be registered. This was the first registration and was taken while Quirinius was governor of Syria. All went to their own towns to be registered. Joseph also went from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to the city of David called Bethlehem, because he was descended from the house and family of David. He went to be registered with Mary, to whom he was engaged and who was expecting a child. While they were there, the time came for her to deliver her child. And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn.

In that region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. Then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid; for see-- I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah, the Lord. This will be a sign for you: you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger." And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying,

"Glory to God in the highest heaven,
and on earth peace among those whom he favors!"

When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, "Let us go now to Bethlehem and see this thing that has taken place, which the Lord has made known to us." So they went with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the child lying in the manger. When they saw this, they made known what had been told them about this child; and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds told them. But Mary treasured all these words and pondered them in her heart. The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, as it had been told them.

Gospeller        The Gospel of the Lord.

People            Praise to you Lord Christ.

Sequence Hymn        Hark the Herald (v.2)

Mendelssohn

Christ by highest heaven adored; Christ the everlasting Lord;
Late in time behold him come, offspring of the Virgin's womb.
Veiled in flesh the Godhead see; hail the incarnate Deity.
Pleased as man with us to dwell; Jesus, our Emmanuel!
Hark the herald angels sing glory to the newborn King!

The Prayers of the People

My sisters and brothers in the peace of God, all the gifts we shall give and receive in these days are but small tokens of the gift that shines forth in God's word made flesh this night. From grateful hearts let us intercede for all who find themselves longing for this deepest, truest gift, saying: Let the heavens rejoice; and let the earth be glad.

That the peace proclaimed by angels in the shepherds' field might be realized in every place of conflict and on every street of violence.

Let the heavens rejoice; and let the earth be glad.

That the child born to us might find in our hearts warm welcome by our openness to the needs of the homeless and the hungry and our willingness to nourish the growth of our souls.

Let the heavens rejoice; and let the earth be glad.

That in this time of gift-giving we might become more responsive to the abandoned, the despairing, and the mourning, and to those who are seeking a better life for their families by fleeing the violence of their home lands.

Let the heavens rejoice; and let the earth be glad.

That the rejoicing of this day might be a bond leading us to true communion of life and worship through the fellowship of the Church.

Let the heavens rejoice; and let the earth be glad.

That the joy and the consolation of the Wonderful Counselor might enliven all who are sick or suffering.

Let the heavens rejoice; and let the earth be glad.

That the angels may join in our chorus of gratitude and thanksgiving, especially for those who are gathered in churches and online around the world this Christmas Eve.

Let the heavens rejoice; and let the earth be glad.

That the blessed hope we celebrate this night might be the fulfillment of all who have gone before us in faith.

Let the heavens rejoice; and let the earth be glad.

Remembering our most glorious and blessed Virgin Mary and all the saints, let us offer ourselves and one another to the living God through Christ.

To you, O Lord our God.

Dear People of God, we invite you to share your prayers.

The Peace

The Great Thanksgiving: Eucharist Prayer A

Presider     The Lord be with you.

People     And also with you.

Presider     Lift up your hearts.

People     We lift them to the Lord.

Presider     Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People     It is right to give God thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth...

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Presider and People

Sanctus: LEVAS II 255 (Mass for a Soulful People)                      Grayson Warren Brown

Holy, holy, holy, holy, holy Lord God of hosts.

Heaven and earth are filled with your glory, Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, of the Lord.

Hosanna, in the highest, hosanna in the highest

The Presider continues,

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Presider and People,

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

The Presider continues,

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

It is our custom at Holy Apostles to hold hands with our neighbor as we sing the Lord's Prayer

The Lord's Prayer: LEVAS II 264

Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen

We want to thank our amazing director of music, Saya Callner, who has lifted our souls with beautiful music throughout the pandemic on Zoom and now as we have returned in person.

And thank you, to all of you, for helping to create this wonderful, loving Christian community that gives and loves abundantly.

A Christmas Welcome

Dear Friends,

As we celebrate the Incarnation – the love of God born among us in Bethlehem, a light for the whole world – the Church is reminded of its call to embody the love of God in the world today. A love that we need more than ever.

We are faithfully here every week, our doors open to all people – those who seek solace, those who seek community, those who feel called to enter into a relationship with God and others. We invite you to join us in 2022 – come be loved and healed by God in person or on Zoom.

Hearing the angels' announcement of the Savior's birth, may your ears be opened to the messengers of God's love in your life. Inspired by the faithfulness of Mary, may your heart be opened to God's purposes in your life and to God's new creation. And celebrating the light that darkness did not overcome, may you know the light of Christ burning brightly in your life. Welcome to Holy Apostles, and God bless you this Christmas.

In peace & with love,

The Mothers
